

1. The Law of the Spirit

a. Understand

List five common excuses people might use for not communicating God's word, and for each write a sentence that will counter that excuse.

i.

ii.

iii.

iv.

v.

b. Reflect

Reflect on your ministry as a communicator, and respond to the statements below by placing an "x" on the line:

Never Seldom Sometimes Often Always

"I communicate with a sense of reliance upon _____ God's Spirit not upon techniques and my own skill."

"I work hard to ensure that what I say _____ is accurate, and in accordance with Biblical truth."

"I communicate Biblical truth even if I know it _____ will be unpopular with those who hear it."

"I communicate with a conviction borne out _____ of personal experience and not mere head knowledge."

"When I communicate God's truth I do so with a _____ challenge that encourages people to apply it."

c. Apply

Describe the role of the Holy Spirit in your teaching and preaching? In what ways do you recognise His role? What experiences have you had of His leading? What areas do you need to work on to ensure that He is able to work through you? (Minimum 100 words):

